

Hello Jobs and Skills Australia

Just wanted to drop a quick line to say have read the Clean Energy Capacity Study Discussion paper. I found the content to be very interesting and felt the definitions of the clean energy workforce and other areas to be researched were right on the mark. I spent some time on the discussion paper questions but felt I would struggle to provide any feedback or new information that would add value at this stage.

I look forward to hearing the results of the study and would like to be kept up to date if I can be added to the mailing list for this group.

Thank you.

Regards
